

Would you like to receive notice to the General Assembly and other VPS messages electronically?

To save the environment and costs for the companies in which you own shares, you can choose to receive notices and other information electronically instead of in the mail.

Follow the steps below:

- Login through your bank or with Bank ID at www.vps.no - my VPS - VPS Investortjenester (Private Investors) Login to VPS Investor Portal. If you don't have access, please contact your VPS Account Operator (your bank or investment company) for assistance.
- Click on your name in the upper right corner
- Select "Investor Information"
- Press the blue edit button
- Add your email address or check that the registered email address is correct. You can change this yourself at any time.
- Select YES to Electronic Company Announcements / Investor Announcement at all points below

Yes No

Once you have registered for digital communication, you will receive an e-mail stating that you have a message in investor services when VPS messages / summons are sent.

Log in to the same location and retrieve the VPS message / notice in the Mailbox in the upper right corner.

Registration, proxy or advance votes (for companies that have this) must be done in investor services under Corporate Actions - General Meeting.

Contact your VPS account operator if you have any questions or problems setting up this.
